Description

On the occasion of the glorious 75th Birth Anniversary of Kandi Raj College, Kandi, Murshidabad, we continue to uphold the true spirit of the Institution by engaging with the community through various methods of learning.

On the 27th of February, 2025 (Thursday) Kandi Raj College, through its Department of Economics and the Department of Library Science conducted a Seminar in collaboration with Kandi Municipality. The Seminar was held at the Helifox Field, Kandi during the on-going book-fair held by the Kandi Municipality. The theme of the seminar was “Relevance of Books in the Age of Technology”. We had invited Mr. Abdul Jaman Naser, Associate Professor, Mukundaram Mahavidyalaya, Hooghly, as our esteemed guest speaker for the above-mentioned seminar. We also had Mrs. Suparna Naskar Barui, Assistant Professor, Kandi Raj College, as the other speaker of this event.

The lectures delivered by our honourable guests contributed significantly to the community as a whole and led to the deeper understanding of the contemporary issues in academic reading.
